

Meet Our Authors

MONDAY | NOVEMBER 12th | 7 p.m.

Creativity Commons, Hazel McCallion Campus

Join us as we celebrate the release of books written by two of Sheridan's Creative Writing & Publishing professors. In addition to discussing their latest published works, Thea Lim and Paul Vermeersch will also speak about how the writing practice informs their teaching.

Thea Lim

(An Ocean of Minutes)

Thea's debut novel is one of five finalists for this year's Scotiabank Giller Prize, making her the first Sheridan professor to be shortlisted for the highly coveted and prestigious Canadian literary award. An Ocean of Minutes was also featured on this summer's must-read lists compiled by Maclean's, CBC Radio and Flare.

Paul Vermeersch

(Self-Defence for the Brave and Happy)

Described as a "survival guide for the Dark Age that lies ahead", Self-Defence for the Brave and Happy is Paul's sixth published collection of poetry. Paul's previous works have appeared on shortlists for the Gerard Lampert Memorial Award, the K.M. Hunter Artist Award and the Trillium Book Award.

The formal programme will commence at 7 p.m. to be followed by Q&A and a book signing. Please note: This event is open to the public and seating is on a first come first served basis, so be sure to arrive early to avoid disappointment.
