

Sara Alexandre is an English as a Second Language professor who began her own journey as an ESL student when she moved to Canada from Portugal. As an educator, she loves to use her creativity to create meaningful lessons for her students. The birth of her nephew sparked an interest in teaching through children's books and sharing positive messages for kids. She currently resides in Oakville, Ontario, with her wonderful husband, Jacob, their two guinea pigs; Nibbles and Rambo, and two rats; Trixie and Katya.

